The Cost of Discipleship

There can be a tendency to hear today's gospel as a lesson primarily in morality — being humble, not ambitious; seeking to serve, not exploiting one's power. And, of course, humility and service typify our participation in the Kingdom of God. But if we focus first on how we are to behave, we fail to recognize an even more important revelation by the Lord—“the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

Our humility and gratitude, which lead to loving service, are inspired, not by our goodness, but by the goodness of Jesus Christ. Last week, the rich man wanted to know what he had to do to inherent eternal life. Jesus revealed that it is impossible for human beings to do anything to gain eternal life. Instead, we are given the opportunity to accept the gift of eternal life.

Jesus reveals that the cost of our salvation is that the Son of Man came to serve us, his creatures, by paying the ransom for our lives by his death. As a kidnap victim's freedom is linked to a ransom being paid, so Jesus has paid the ransom with his blood to free us from slavery to sin and eternal death. Jesus died in our place; he is our ransom—the ransom for many. If “Love covers a multitude of sins” then the Infinite, Divine Love covers the vast array of human sin from the beginning. This is the Good News of God's love for us, and if we do not hear this Good News or recognize it, then Christianity is just an ethical system of doing good and avoiding evil.

But when we understand this Good News, then we are drawn into a loving relationship with the Eternal God. The cost of our salvation translates into the cost of our discipleship — we willingly embrace dying to self to love God first and with our whole being and to love all others as God loves them. Thus, our service of others flows from a keen awareness of how much God loves us.

Jesus assured James and John that they would share in their own way in his passion—and thus share in his Kingdom. As Intentional Disciples, Jesus invites us to be so closely united with him that we reflect in our lives his Paschal Mystery. In the Eucharist, the Lord invites us:

“Take this, all of you, and drink from it,
For this is the chalice of my Blood,
The Blood of the new and eternal covenant,
Which will be poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this in memory of me.”

As we are baptized into his suffering and death and drink from the cup of salvation, we not only are transformed by Christ's Paschal Mystery, but share in it and bring it to others. Each time we hear these words of Jesus—‘poured out for you and for many,’ may we rejoice in Jesus' love that paid the ransom. May we also hear in it the command to share this Good News with others, that they may be among the “many” who are being saved.

Father Allan F. Wolfe

El Costo del Discipulado

Puede haber una tendencia a escuchar el evangelio de hoy como una lección principalmente de moralidad: ser humilde, no ambicioso; buscando servir, no explotando el poder de uno. Y, por supuesto, la humildad y el servicio tipifican nuestra participación en el Reino de Dios. Pero si nos enfocamos primero en cómo debemos comportarnos, no reconocemos una revelación aún más importante del Señor: “el Hijo del Hombre no vino para ser servido, sino para servir y dar su vida en rescate por muchos.”

Nuestra humildad y gratitud, que conducen a un servicio amoroso, están inspiradas, no por nuestra bondad, sino por la bondad de Jesucristo. La semana pasada, el hombre rico quería saber qué tenía que hacer con la vida eterna inherente. Jesús reveló que es imposible que los seres humanos hagan algo para obtener la vida eterna. En cambio, se nos da la oportunidad de aceptar el regalo de la vida eterna.

Jesús revela que el costo de nuestra salvación es que el Hijo del Hombre vino a servirnos a nosotros, sus criaturas, pagando el rescate por nuestras vidas con su muerte. Así como la libertad de la víctima de un secuestro está vinculada al pago de un rescate, Jesús ha pagado el rescate con su sangre para liberarnos de la esclavitud del pecado y la muerte eterna. Jesús murió en nuestro lugar; él es nuestro rescate, el rescate de muchos. Si “el amor cubre una multitud de pecados”, entonces el amor infinito y divino cubre la vasta gama de pecados humanos desde el principio. Estas son las Buenas Nuevas del amor de Dios por nosotros, y si no las escuchamos ni las reconocemos, entonces el cristianismo es solo un sistema ético para hacer el bien y evitar el mal.

Pero cuando entendemos estas Buenas Nuevas, nos vemos atraídos a una relación amorosa con el Eterno Dios. El costo de nuestra salvación se traduce en el costo de nuestro discipulado: aceptamos voluntariamente morir a nosotros mismos para amar a Dios primero y con todo nuestro ser y amar a todos los demás como Dios los ama. Por lo tanto, nuestro servicio a los demás surge de una aguda conciencia de cuánto nos ama Dios.

Jesús les aseguró a Santiago y Juan que compartirían su pasión a su manera y, por lo tanto, compartirían su Reino. Como discípulos intencionales, Jesús nos invita a estar tan unidos a él que reflejemos en nuestras vidas su misterio pascual. En la Eucaristía, el Señor nos invita:

“Tomen y beban todos de él,
Porque éste es el cáliz de mi Sangre,
Sangre de la alianza nueva y eterna,
Que será derramada por Ustedes y por muchos para el perdón de los pecados.
Hagan esto en conmemoración mía ”.

Cuando somos bautizados en su sufrimiento y muerte y bebemos de la copa de la salvación, no solo somos transformados por el Misterio Pascual de Cristo, sino que lo compartimos y lo llevamos a otros. Cada vez que escuchemos estas palabras de Jesús: “derramadas por ti y por muchos”, que nos regocijemos en el amor de Jesús que pagó el rescate. Que también escuchemos en él el mandamiento de compartir esta Buena Nueva con otros, para que estén entre los “muchos” que están siendo salvos.

Spiritual Adoption Developing Baby Update

Thank you for praying for me. I am about 7 months old now. I am growing every day. I am between 14 and 17 inches long and weigh about 4 ½ pounds. I move around a lot but it's getting crowded in here! Sometimes I even get the hiccups!

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted, who is in danger of abortion.
