We are One Body! We are the Church!

It may seem strange that it is now, on this ninth Sunday in the new liturgical year, a year focused primarily on the Gospel of Luke, that we hear the first verses of the first chapter of Luke's gospel. Yet at the beginning of Ordinary Time, the Church seeks to ground us in the truth and reality of God's great works unfolding in Jesus Christ. So Luke writes,

"I too have decided, after investigating everything accurately anew, to write it down in an orderly sequence for you, most excellent Theophilus, so that you may realize the certainty of the teachings you have received."

Luke helps us as disciples both to understand that our faith in Jesus Christ rests on the reliable account of eyewitnesses and therefore to share joyfully and convincingly the gospel more effectively with others.

Today's reading then skips to chapter 4, in which Jesus, having read to the gathering in the synagogue a prophecy from Isaiah, then makes a startling revelation. He says, "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." Or in other words, the hope, liberation, and healing that God promised long ago through Isaiah He was now going to accomplish in the person of Jesus Christ. Salvation is a person-oriented work, by a person for persons. This begins Jesus' proclamation of the Kingdom of God and his definitive work of salvation by his death and resurrection. What Jesus fulfills in our hearing is the invitation to be participants in this Kingdom and thus in this relationship.

Every Sunday, we gather to grow as participants of this Kingdom, to be enlightened by Jesus' revelation, to be strengthened by Holy Communion, and then to be sent out to share Him with others. Our essential act of worship of God in Jesus Christ forms us as Intentional Disciples, if we but respond. As we grow in knowing this One, who fulfills the Father's promise, we not only are able to help others know Him, we desire to do so enthusiastically—with our spouse, our children, our family members, our friends, and even strangers.

Saint Paul reminds us as disciples of the Lord Jesus that we have a particular identity and mission. Disciples form a unity that is organic, following the analogy of the human body. This "Mystical Body" of Christ is the Church and is essential for individuals to live out intentional discipleship in the Lord. This is who we are, the Mystical Body of Christ, the Church. We continue Jesus' mission, as members of his 'Body.' As Jesus was the fulfillment of the Father's promise, so we fulfill Jesus' mission by bringing Him to others. We do this today, guided by that same Spirit that makes us One in Christ.

Fr. Allan F. Wolfe

¡Somos un Solo Cuerpo! ¡Somos la Iglesia!

Puede parecer extraño que ahora, en este noveno domingo del nuevo año litúrgico, un año centrado principalmente en el Evangelio de Lucas, escuchemos los primeros versículos del primer capítulo del evangelio de Lucas. Sin embargo, al comienzo del Tiempo Ordinario, la Iglesia busca fundamentarnos en la verdad y la realidad de las grandes obras de Dios que se desarrollan en Jesucristo. Entonces Lucas escribe,

Yo también, ilustre Teófilo, después de haberme informado minuciosamente de todo, desde sus principios, pensé escribírtelo por orden, para que veas la verdad de lo que se te ha enseñado.

Lucas nos ayuda como discípulos a comprender que nuestra fe en Jesucristo se basa en el relato confiable de testigos oculares y, por lo tanto, a compartir el evangelio con alegría y de manera más eficaz con los demás.

La lectura de hoy luego salta al capítulo 4, en el que Jesús, después de haber leído en la sinagoga una profecía de Isaías, luego hace una revelación sorprendente. Él dice: "Hoy se cumple este pasaje de la Escritura en presencia de ustedes". O en otras palabras, la esperanza, liberación y sanación que Dios prometió hace mucho tiempo a través de Isaías, ahora lo iba a realizar en la persona de Jesucristo. La salvación es una obra orientada a la persona, por una persona para personas. Así comienza el anuncio de Jesús del Reino de Dios y su obra definitiva de salvación por su muerte y resurrección. Lo que Jesús realiza en nuestro oído es la invitación a ser partícipes de este Reino y por tanto de esta relación.

Todos los domingos nos reunimos para crecer como participantes de este Reino, para ser iluminados por la revelación de Jesús, para ser fortalecidos por la Sagrada Comunión y luego para ser enviados a compartirlo con otros. Nuestro acto esencial de adoración a Dios en Jesucristo nos forma como discípulos intencionales, si respondemos. A medida que crecemos en el conocimiento de Aquel que cumple la promesa del Padre, no solo somos capaces de ayudar a otros a conocerlo, sino que deseamos hacerlo con entusiasmo, con nuestro cónyuge, nuestros hijos, nuestros familiares, nuestros amigos e incluso extraños.

San Pablo nos recuerda como discípulos del Señor Jesús que tenemos una identidad y una misión particular. Los discípulos forman una unidad que es orgánica, siguiendo la analogía del cuerpo humano. Este "Cuerpo Místico" de Cristo es la Iglesia y es esencial para que las personas vivan el discipulado intencional en el Señor. Esto somos nosotros, el Cuerpo Místico de Cristo, la Iglesia. Continuamos la misión de Jesús, como miembros de su 'Cuerpo'. Así como Jesús fue el cumplimiento de la promesa del Padre, cumplimos la misión de Jesús llevándolo a los demás. Hacemos esto hoy, guiados por ese mismo Espíritu que nos hace Uno en Cristo.
