Behold the Lamb of God!

At the beginning of this New Year, Saint John the Baptist identifies Jesus to us, "Behold, the Lamb of God." This strange title must have aroused curiosity for Andrew and the other disciple, for they begin to follow after the Lord. The Lord then transforms this curiosity into a more personal interaction with them. To their inquiry, "Where are you staying?" Jesus invites them, "Come, and you will see," or in other words, "spend some time with me." This is the whole of the Christian life, coming to know Jesus more and more personally. When we come to Jesus, we do see more fully who Jesus is.

Although his title as the Lamb of God is highly theological, it also provides the avenue to know him more personally. These very words are very familiar to anyone who attends Mass regularly. The phrase, "Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us," sounds familiar, since we sing it 3 times in preparation to Encounter the Lord in Holy Communion.

These exact words of Saint John are used again by the priest to invite us forward to receive the Eucharist:

Behold the Lamb of God,
behold him who takes away the sins of the world,
Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

Holy Communion feeds and strengthens our friendship with Jesus, for it is an Encounter with the Risen Lord. It is how we "Come and See."

Catholics are often criticized for not knowing the Bible. Yet, here is another example that the heart of our faith, the Holy Mass, uses not only many passages of Scripture, but the most significant revelations about the "Word made Flesh."

The term Lamb of God reveals that Christ has become our Paschal sacrifice, replacing the animal sacrifice of Passover with his own Body and Blood to offer us the new and eternal covenant. And Christ's own sacrifice of his Body and Blood is made available for us in the gift of Holy Communion. John the Baptist wanted his disciples to recognize who Jesus was; the Church at Mass wants us to recognize who is present to us in the Holy Eucharist.

Similarly, last Sunday with Epiphany we prayed after the offertory, "Look with favor, Lord, we pray, on these gifts of your Church, in which are offered now not gold or frankincense or myrrh, but he who by them is proclaimed, sacrificed and received, Jesus Christ." The same One whom the Magi adored, we can not only bow down before Him, but receive Him as Communion.

Fr. Allan F. Wolfe

¡Este es el Cordero de Dios!

Al comienzo de este Año Nuevo, San Juan Bautista nos identifica a Jesús: "Este es el Cordero de Dios". Este extraño título debe haber despertado la curiosidad de Andrés y del otro discípulo, pues comienzan a seguir al Señor. Luego, el Señor transforma esta curiosidad en una interacción más personal con ellos. A su pregunta: "¿Dónde vives?" Jesús los invita: "Vengan a ver", o en otras palabras, "pasen un tiempo conmigo". Esta es toda la vida cristiana, llegar a conocer cada vez más personalmente a Jesús. Cuando venimos a Jesús, vemos más plenamente quién es Jesús.

Aunque su título como Cordero de Dios es altamente teológico, también proporciona la vía para conocerlo más personalmente. Estas mismas palabras son muy familiares para cualquiera que asista a Misa con regularidad. La frase "Cordero de Dios, que quitas los pecados del mundo, ten piedad de nosotros," suena familiar, ya que la cantamos 3 veces en preparación para el Encuentro con el Señor en la Sagrada Comunión. Estas mismas palabras de San Juan son utilizadas nuevamente por el sacerdote para invitarnos a recibir la Eucaristía:

Este es el Cordero de Dios,
que quita el pecados del mundo,
Dichosos los invitados a la cena del Señor.

La Sagrada Comunión alimenta y fortalece nuestra amistad con Jesús, porque es un Encuentro con el Señor Resucitado. Así es como "Venimos a Ver."

A menudo se critica a los católicos por no conocer la Biblia. Sin embargo, he aquí otro ejemplo de que el corazón de nuestra fe, la Santa Misa, utiliza no sólo muchos pasajes de las Escrituras, sino también las revelaciones más significativas sobre el "La Palabra hecha Carne".

El término Cordero de Dios revela que Cristo se ha convertido en nuestro sacrificio pascual, reemplazando el sacrificio animal de la Pascua con su propio Cuerpo y Sangre para ofrecernos la nueva y eterna alianza. Y el propio sacrificio de Cristo de su Cuerpo y Sangre está disponible para nosotros en el don de la Santa Comunión. Juan Bautista quería que sus discípulos reconocieran quién era Jesús; La Iglesia en la Misa quiere que reconozcamos quién está presente ante nosotros en la Sagrada Eucaristía.

De manera similar, el domingo pasado con la Epifanía oramos después del ofertorio: "Mira con bondad, Señor, los dones de tu Iglesia, que no consisten ya en oro, incienso, y mirra, sino en lo que por esos dones se representa, se inmola y se recibe como alimento, Jesucristo, Señor nuestro." Aquel a quien adoraron los Magos, no sólo podemos postrarnos ante Él, sino recibirlo como Comunión.

Let It Snow, Let It Snow, Let It Snow!

Friday this past week as I was taking my grandchildren to school, we began singing the song "Let it Snow, Let it Snow, Let it Snow". We chatted briefly about how beautiful everything looks when the snow covers the trees, the sidewalks and the hills and valleys. All things covered with the white fluffy snow are clean, pure, fresh, and beautiful. That's exactly how our souls are when we go to confession and obtain the forgiveness of our sins. Our once dirty, soiled, sinful souls become clean, pure, and beautiful to God. Even more, when we go to Mass, when we receive the sanctifying grace of the other sacraments and when we receive the body, blood, soul, and divinity of Jesus Christ in the most Holy Eucharist; the Lord shares with us his divine life and his grace helps us make ready for eternal life.

I always am ready and anxious to help you or someone you know re-engage in the sacraments, return to the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass and/or to help you and others to grow in the knowledge and practice of the faith. Perhaps you know a family member, neighbor, or friend, who is not catholic, who would like to know more about the Universal Church and the grace and faith that we so proudly celebrate. Ask them to contact me at the Religious Education Office, telephone 717-263-9541 for more information. God bless, - Deacon Rick

Weekly Food Assistance: For the week ending January 6, SVDP distributed food to 150 households. Due to the New Year's Day holiday on Monday, food was only given out two days this week.

2023 Recap Continued: Last week's column included a summary of the 2023 SVDP Food Pantry Distribution numbers...but wait...there's more! In addition to supporting a very productive and vital food pantry operation, your 2023 SVDP donations were used to provide a total of $41,929.66 worth of financial aid to 130 households in our community. Those funds were paid out as follows:

Rent Assistance -	$ 19,573.79
Utilities Assistance -	$ 21,129.85
Fuel Oil Assistance -	$ 672.66
Misc. Assistance (Sneakers, Hot Water Heater) -	$ 553.36

In addition, SVDP donated $9000.00 to the Corpus Christi Catholic School Cafeteria Fund bringing the total 2023 Financial Assistance provided to $50,929.66!

(Note: All monies are paid directly to the individual or company owed the money. Funds are never disbursed directly to the requestor.)

SVDP Ministry could not operate without the help of our dedicated volunteers and generous parishioners. Your time and donations are what make this ministry so successful. Thank you!

IRA Rollover Gifts

Giftng from your taxable IRA is one of many ways to make annual gifts or satisfy multi-year pledges. Make a gift to Corpus Christi with a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) from your IRA. Since the QCD goes directly to Corpus Christi without passing through your hands, the amount of the gift may be excluded from your taxable income, potentially lessening your tax liability.

If you are over 70 ½ years old, inform your IRA custodian to make a distribution from your IRA directly to: Corpus Christi, 320 Philadelphia Ave, Chambersburg PA 17201. For assistance or to learn more, call or email the parish office and ask for Alex Bacay, Chair of the Planned Giving Committee of the Parish Finance Council.
