The Week we Call 'HOLY'

This week we call "Holy" is no ordinary week. Yes, it consists of 7 days, 168 hours, 10,080 minutes, or 604,800 seconds like any other week. What makes this week extraordinary is not its length, but the depths to which the Church invites us to enter more fully into the Paschal Mystery. In the Paschal Mystery, the LORD reveals that "God so loved the world that he gave his only Son." The whole of Lent has directed us toward the liturgies, prayer, and devotion of Holy Week, so that we might ENCOUNTER our Crucified and Risen Lord more personally and be renewed more fully in the new and eternal covenant, by which we are God's beloved sons and daughters.

As Christ entered Jerusalem, so too do we enter into, not a city, but the depths of God's salvific love called the Paschal Mystery. This Paschal Mystery refers to the suffering, death, resurrection and ascension of Jesus Christ. It is a mystery, not because the ending is hidden, but because it expresses the infinite LOVE of God, which is TOO MUCH for us to understand completely. By his death on the cross, Christ became our Passover sacrifice, the Lamb of God, who offers us reconciliation and the freedom of God's adopted children.

This week we call HOLY is the week to postpone our normal activities in order to focus entirely on ENCOUNTERING Jesus Christ more fully as our Savior, through the liturgies of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday, and Easter Sunday.

Fr. Allan F. Wolfe

La semana que llamamos 'SANTA'

Esta semana que llamamos "Santa" no es una semana cualquiera. Sí, consta de 7 días, 168 horas, 10.080 minutos o 604.800 segundos como cualquier otra semana. Lo que hace que esta semana sea extraordinaria no es su duración, sino la profundidad a la que la Iglesia nos invita a entrar más plenamente en el Misterio Pascual. En el Misterio Pascual, el Señor revela que "tanto amó Dios al mundo que dio a su único Hijo". Toda la Cuaresma nos ha orientado hacia las liturgias, la oración y la devoción de la Semana Santa, para que podamos ENCONTRAR más personalmente a nuestro Señor Crucificado y Resucitado y renovarnos más plenamente en la nueva y eterna alianza, por la que somos hijos amados de Dios. e hijas.

Así como Cristo entró en Jerusalén, nosotros también entramos, no en una ciudad, sino en las profundidades del amor salvador de Dios llamado el Misterio Pascual. Este Misterio Pascual se refiere al sufrimiento, muerte, resurrección y ascensión de Jesucristo. Es un misterio, no porque el final esté oculto, sino porque expresa el AMOR infinito de Dios, que es DEMASIADO para que lo entendamos completamente. Por su muerte en la cruz, Cristo se convirtió en nuestro sacrificio de Pascua, el Cordero de Dios, que nos ofrece la reconciliación y la libertad de los hijos adoptivos de Dios.

Esta semana que llamamos SANTA es la semana para posponer nuestras actividades normales para enfocarnos completamente en ENCONTRAR más plenamente a Jesucristo como nuestro Salvador, a través de las liturgias del Jueves Santo, Viernes Santo, Sábado Santo y Domingo de Pascua.

Proudly Display Those Palms

This weekend we celebrate Palm Sunday and on Monday, we enter into Holy Week. We will gather to celebrate the Last Supper on Holy Thursday. On Good Friday we will venerate the Holy Cross and on Holy Saturday we will reflect, pray, and prepare to celebrate the glorious resurrection of our Lord on Easter Sunday, the greatest solemnity in the Church's Liturgical Year.

As we hear the stories of Jesus' Passion, this weekend, many of the people who were singing with joy and enthusiastically waving their palms as our Lord entered Jerusalem, were the same people only days later who would be calling for Jesus' condemnation and crucifixion. Where was their faith? The fear of what others would think, do, and say overpowered their trust in and reliance on the Lord's protection and providence.

As we near the end of the season of Lent and prepare to celebrate Palm Sunday and the resurrection of Jesus on Easter Sunday, let us not be afraid to proudly proclaim, practice and share our faith and the wonderful and mighty things that Jesus Christ has done for us. I wish all of you a happy, healthy, and faith-filled Holy Week and Easter Season. God bless and I will see you around the parish.

- Deacon Rick Ramsey

Committed adorers are needed to keep watch with Jesus for an hour each week in the Adoration Chapel. Please contact Richard So at 717-404-9491 for details.
